

The Paw Print Consent for Publication

Directions:

- 1.) Type your original poem or short story in Google docs – make the document title be your full name and title of your work.
- 2.) Send your submission as an attachment to thepawprint@barnegatschools.com – please make the email subject be your full name and title of your work.

Note: Do not share your doc – send it as an attachment.

Multiple submissions must be emailed individually.

- 3.) Fill out this consent form completely and turn in to Ms. Beaudoin in A-107 by Friday, May 10, 2019.

Multiple submissions will be reviewed, but not necessarily published. Submissions will not be reviewed without a completed consent form. Please note that if your work is accepted for publication, The Paw Print staff reserves the right to edit for grammar/mechanics. Accepted authors will be invited to share their work and best submission winners will be announced at Java Slam on May 29 at 6:30pm. Please email thepawprint@barnegatschools.com if you have any questions. We look forward to your contribution!

Student Name: _____

I hereby authorize Barnegat High School to publish the following original—written or created entirely by me—work in both the print and/or online editions of The Paw Print, the Literary Magazine of Barnegat High School. I certify that this is my original work and understand that the copyright of the work resides with me.

Story story titled _____

Story story titled _____

OR

Poem titled _____

Poem titled _____

Poem titled _____

I prefer to be identified as (check one):

First and last name

School-appropriate pseudonym _____

Anonymous

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Parent Signature: _____